

ReversePools

MOBILE: 0419 653 356 EMAIL: peter.burns@reversepools.com.au

The pictures below show a pool in St Kilda being converted into an underground water storage tank. The top of the pool has been cut off level allowing the hollow core beams to be installed.

These beams sit 450mm underground while still providing approximately 35000L of water storage which was then hidden from view under a yet to be planted vegetable patch.

