

ReversePools

MOBILE: 0419 653 356 EMAIL: peter.burns@reversepools.com.au

These pictures are of a pool in Avoca St, South Yarra being converted into an underground water storage tank. This is done by using the existing pool structure and hollow core beams. Note the strength of the beams as the machinery is able to operate on top.

This tank had 450mm of soil installed on top which was then turfed over, giving the owners approximately 40000L of water storage which is completely hidden from view.

